HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES RAISE RECORD DOLLARS FOR COMMUNITY

Congratulations to the employees of Ukiah Valley Medical Center (UVMC) who raised a record $36,180.22 for hospital and community projects during their annual Employee Giving Campaign for 2005. 111 hospital employees participated in the Employee Giving Campaign entitled Let's Bloom. This year's campaign focused on UVMC's expanding health care visions for our community.

Here's the breakdown of where employees designated their pledges/gifts for 2005:

- $1,546.00 - Emergency Services
- $5,629.00 - Employee Assistance
- $728.00 - Hospital Endowment
- $2,600.00 - Surgery Equipment
- $1,040.00 - Medical Imaging Equipment
- $1,833.00 - United Way
- $22,804.22 - Where The Need Is Greatest (Unrestricted)

A celebration is planned in January for each employee who contributed to the campaign. UVMC's Campaign Coordinator, Jarrod McNaughton, said, "This is another example of the employees at UVMC caring for our community and doing fantastic things to prove it."
